

Oldies (But Goodies) Commodore and CP/M

It is truly amazing how far the personal computer has evolved over the two decades since its birth in the '70s. One of the first true computer operating systems was called 'CP/M'. Although CP/M has long since been pushed aside by DOS, Windows, Macs, OS/2, etc, there are still a large number of collectors and enthusiasts who like to tinker with these machines. (Also long gone are the days when software was written to work in a few kilobytes of RAM!)

Although we no longer support our line of CP/M software (developed in the '80s), we had collected a considerable amount of technical information on CP/M, in particular the CP/M+ version used on the Commodore C-128. (remember that machine?) This information is being made freely available, on the sole condition that it is for your personal use and is not to be exploited commercially (i.e. don't print off our files, bind them as a book and sell them!) These files are PKZIPed (version 2.x) in ASCII text format, so you will have to UnZIP them first.

- Intro to C-128 CP/M
- Internal CCP Commands
- External Utilities
- The Console
- The Disk System
 - CP/M Disk Format Details
- Customizing C-128 CP/M
- C-128 CP/M Memory Map

Programming the 1571 disk drive:

- Intro to the 1571 drive
- BASIC Disk Commands
- The 1571 Disk Operating System
- Effective Use of Files
- Intro to Burst Mode
- Burst Read Protocol
- Burst Write Protocol
- Burst Mode and BASIC
- Auto Booting on C-128
- Formatting MFM Disks
- Batch File Programming
- Above documentation in GZip format

Some of our C-128 CP/M software:

- Jugg'ler 128 (support for more than 140 types of CP/M disks)
- Scamb'ler 128 (disk encryption program)
- C-128 CP/M Hacker's Toolkit (misc. system utilities)

Also of interest-

Want to format or copy CP/M disks on your MS-DOS computer? Try our

- FreeForm \(for DOS\) to format disks
- MAXI Disk \(for Windows\) to copy disks

Fatal-design's C-64 emulator:

- CCS64

Usenet newsgroups:

- comp.os.cpm CP/M newsgroup
 - CP/M newsgroup FAQ
- comp.sys.cbm C-128 newsgroup

(The newsgroup links may not work if your web browser does not have integrated support for newsgroups. If the links do not work, use your news reader application.)

some CP/M and 8-bit Commodore 'Gurus':

- Randy Winchester
 - Don Maslin
 - Jeff Marraccini
 - Jim Brain Updated
 - Craig Bruce
 - Marko Mäkelä's Commodore 8 Bit Server
 - Gaelyne Gasson Updated
-

Other sources of CP/M info and software:

- The Computer Journal
 - Sage Microsystems East
 - The Orphan Computer Site
 - The Oak CP/M Archive
 - Loadstar
 - Howard Herman's Commodore FTP Site List \(PKZIP'd\) Updated
 - Commodore Products Source List NEW!
 - Our main "Links" page
-

This Commodore Ring site is owned by Herne Data Systems.

Choose [2 pages backward | Previous Page | Next Page | 2 pages forward | Next 5]
[List all | Want to join the ring? Click here for info.]

 TradeBanners Member

TradeBanners Member

Member of the Internet Link Exchange

Member of the Software HyperBanner !

Remember to maximize your browser window for best viewing!

Herne Data Systems Ltd.

Last updated 2000-Apr-18